wish to discontinue their studies after the Tenth Class Examination, suffer no great handicap, seeing that both the Union Public Service Commission as well as the Railway Service Commission recognise this Class Examination Certificate for many purposes including entrance into the National Defence Academy and service in the Railways.

Mr. Speaker, I am most grateful to the Hon'ble Minister for the categorical assurance he gave that Government had no intention of interfering in any way with the schools preparing students for the Examinations conducted by the Council for the Indian School Certificate Examination. That is all I ever sought, and I repeat I am grateful to him.

Should the Hon'ble Education Minister be pleased to call for my speech he will see that the facts are as I have now explained, and that he was unfortunately mistaken in thinking some of my observations likely to cause offence. As I have stated earlier, it is inconceivable that I should risk offending an Hon'ble Minister on whose good will and understanding the success of my work depends.

I ask the Hon'ble Minister to please accept this explanation and the assurances that it carries.

Thank you, Sir.

Sri S. R. KANTHI (Minister for Education).—I did not take it as a personal thing. After all, what he said was that education was becoming parochial and regional, but I said that in Mysore it was not so.

Mr. SPEAKER.—If both of the Hon'ble Minister and the member are satisfied, I am happy and the House is happy.

Mr. SPEAKER.—After I left the House the other day, a point of order was raised. Sri V. S. Patil raised the point of order and claimed the right to speak a second time. Three members supported him. In his point of order he drew the distinction that the matter under discussion was only the amendment and not the clause of the Bill and so he wanted a second chance to speak on the clause of the Bill. At that time the Deputy Speaker was in the Chair. I am surprised at the contention of the member. I believe the ruling is to be given.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—It is given allowing Sri Patil to participate in the discussion.

(10 to 12 Hon'ble Members stood up)

Mr. SPEAKER.—Order, order.....I cannot possibly understand half a dozen or a dozen Members simultaneously standing..If the members are bent upon doing something, let them tell me in advance.

SOME HON'BLE MEMBERS.—No.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The chair really cannot understand this. We have maintained dignity on the floor of the House; let us maintain it; let us not try to spoil it. If the Members want they must appeal to the Minister.....Nobody should speak sitting and nobody should stand when the Speaker is on his legs. I am trying to give every facility to the Members. They may have a full debate; or have a bad debate if the members like. But we must maintain decorum and dignity.

Sri RAMAKRISHNA HEGDE (Minister for Finance).—Let us have good Debate.
